Mt. Aetna

The village of Mt. Aetna, formerly Wohleberstown was laid out in 1810 by Peter Wolleber. The village is in the southwestern part of Tulpehocken Township and is situated on a hill, elevation of 613 feet above sea level.

The Mt. Aetna Orchards closed in 1986 and the property was sold. Presently the "Expressions" store occupies part of the property. The Fredericksburg National Bank, Mt. Aetna Branch; Lanita Trucking Co.; Nitro Gas Sunoco; and also the Levi and Sadie Lapp farm occupy the former Mt. Aetna Orchards property.

Aerial view of the orchard property during ownership by Orville Stauffer (1936)

Kevin Grewal bought this property in 2007
