Housing Placement Services LLC

Caring Hands Housing Placement Services LLC is committed to arranging quality care services for clients in the winter of their lives. We also help individuals who have disabilities and care for seniors who are becoming increasingly dependent on others as they age. We maintain an elevated standard of service delivery to help our clients settle into a home environment they are comfortable with.

Our caring staff believe it is their duty to demonstrate excellence in caring for someone important to you. As a placement agency, we assure you that:

Your loved ones are placed in a facility with comfortable accommodations and caring staff. Recreational activities are within their reach to prevent isolation and depression.

Our staff will always be ready to assist with your questions and concerns about your loved ones' well-being.

The facilities and care providers in our network will meet your loved one's health management requirements.

We coordinate with your social worker, case manager, or attending physician to arrange assisted living or independent living services for your family.

Non-Discrimination Policy
