

Efficient Property Inspections

Home Inspections and Concierge service

Do you need someone to look after your property when you are not there?

My name is Joey Sposari and I am the Owner of

Efficient Property Inspections & Concierge.

Along with being a certified home inspector, I offer my personalized Concierge service in overseeing your property.

I am available 24/7 to answer your call and service you with whatever your needs are, from property walk through's to greeting your renters.

Every time I enter your property, I send an emailed report with pictures showing the services rendered with the time I entered and exited your property.

I have a list of qualified venders to tackle any job from plumbing to electrical to overseeing any contracting work that may be needed, while keeping you informed every step of the way, no task is too small or too large.

If you need someone reliable to oversee your property at an affordable rate, please consider my service. Please call for your quote.
